

22655 - HESS - FACILITIES ENGINEERS

E) DEPUTY CONSTRUCTION SUPERINTENDENT

Location: Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia
Business Unit: South East Asia

Responsibilities

- Reporting to the Construction Superintendent, responsible for providing fabrication management during the project development and execution phases of the project, including, but limited to:
  - Monitoring of Contractor associated with the fabrication and assembly of the offshore O&G process facilities and supporting systems and utilities;
  - Ensure all work is performed to defined and agreed quality standards;
  - Maintain full coordination within site and reporting to the Construction Superintendent;
  - Safety of personal at site.

Candidate

- University graduate in a related engineering discipline.
- Substantial working experience in offshore construction with a good amount at superintendent level involving the fabrication of complex/major O&G process facilities;
- Strong interpersonal skills required;
- Experience of oil and gas construction activity in South East Asia;
- Experience as Client's Site Representative in supervision and management of construction activity;
- Mobility to be based at contractor's sites consistent with the overall construction responsibility;
- Working knowledge and ability to communicate verbally in Bahasa.
- Degree in a related discipline.